I. BACKGROUND AND NEED

On October 29, 2018, PR 22-1102, the “Board of Zoning Adjustment Lorna John Confirmation Resolution of 2018” was introduced by Chairman Mendelson at the request of the Mayor.¹ The purpose of PR 22-1102 is to confirm the reappointment of Lorna John as a member of the Board of Zoning Adjustment (“BZA”) for a term to expire September 30, 2021.

Ms. Johns is a retired attorney who has lived in the District for 30 years and is currently a Ward 6 resident. Ms. Johns earned a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of the West Indies, a Master of Education from Howard University, and a Juris Doctor from the Georgetown

University Law Center. Ms. John began her career as a partner in the firm of Thomas and John, with a concentration in contracts, litigation, real estate, Landlord and Tenant law, criminal law, and family law. Later, she worked as a Hearing Examiner and Staff Attorney at the former District of Columbia Office of Human Rights and Minority Business; this experience allowed her to become familiar with the processes and procedures of local boards and commissions.

In 1990, Ms. John began her 23 year-long career with the Federal Aviation Administration (“FAA”) as a Staff Attorney and later as a Senior Attorney. At the FAA, Ms. John was lead counsel for several complex multi-million-dollar acquisition programs and successfully handled a wide range of acquisition matters. In 1996, she received Vice President Al Gore’s Hammer Award for superior accomplishment in acquisition reform and for drafting the FAA’s innovative acquisition policies and procedures.

As a Senior Attorney in the FAA’s International Law, Legislation and Regulations Division, Ms. John provided legal advice and counsel to management and other agency personnel on a wide range of legal and policy issues affecting international aviation, including European and FAA regulatory harmonization projects. Ms. John drafted and reviewed rulemaking documents and participated in rulemaking committees and international conferences. She has also provided legal technical assistance to many civil aviation authorities around the world. Ms. John’s expansive background in drafting and interpreting policy and regulations is a transferrable skillset that will allow her to make meaningful and thoughtful contributions to the BZA. As she stated in her confirmation hearing, her “service on the BZA has been very rewarding” and she has, in the last seven months, “developed a keen understanding of the zoning regulations and applied [her] legal training and experience in resolving zoning issues.” She went on to say that in her view, the Board does a good job listening to litigants and applying the zoning regulations fairly.

Additionally, Ms. John has demonstrated her commitment to community service. She is the President and Founder of the Luna Brown Street Foundation, a non-profit organization that provides scholarships to underserved students here and overseas. Ms. John currently serves as General Counsel for the High Tea Society, a non-profit mentoring organization for young girls in the District.

At the public hearing on her nomination, Ms. John stated that she does not have any conflicts of interest that would interfere with her duties as a member of the BZA. Ms. John also stated that she is able to meet the time commitment required as a member of the BZA.

The Board

The Board of Zoning Adjustment is a creation of federal law.² The BZA is composed of a member of the National Capital Planning Commission or an NCPC staff member; a rotating member of the Zoning Commission; and three members appointed by the Mayor of the District of Columbia with the advice and consent of the Council.³ Of the three members appointed by the Mayor, each must have been a resident of the District of Columbia for at least three years immediately preceding his or her appointment, and at least one of those three members must own his or her own home.⁴ The terms of the three members appointed by the Mayor are for three years.⁵

The BZA is authorized to consider applications for special exceptions and variances, as well as to hear appeals from decisions granting or refusing a building permit or granting or withholding a certificate of occupancy, or appeals from other administrative decisions based on the zoning regulations or zoning map.⁶ The BZA addresses the following types of cases, and each case includes a public hearing before the BZA:

- Appeals—appeals from any order, requirement, decision, determination, or refusal made by the Mayor, Zoning Administrator, or any other administrative officer or body in the carrying out or enforcement of the zoning regulations.
- Special Exceptions—requests for special exceptions to the zoning regulations, regarding approval of certain aspects of the development or use of property, where “in the judgment of the BZA, the special exception will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the Zoning Regulations and Zoning Maps and will not tend to affect adversely, the use of neighboring property in accordance with the Zoning Regulations and Zoning Maps...”⁷

Special exceptions are explicitly contemplated in the zoning regulations and are subject to special conditions specified in the regulations.

- Variances—Relief from the strict application of the zoning regulations, specifically: “[w]here, by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the original adoption of the regulations or by reason of exceptional topographical conditions or other extraordinary or exceptional situation or condition of a specific piece of property, the strict application of any [zoning regulation] would result in peculiar and exceptional practical difficulties to or exceptional and undue hardship upon the owner of such property...”⁸ Such relief may be granted in order to relieve the resulting hardship or practical difficulties; however, relief can only be granted “without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent, purpose, and integrity of the zone plan as embodied in the zoning regulations and map.”⁹
- Other—decisions on other special questions which the BZA is authorized by its regulations to opine on, including map interpretations.¹⁰

The Board of Zoning Adjustment is distinct from the Zoning Commission; the latter has plenary authority over zoning, including formulation of the zoning regulations. The Zoning Commission has exclusive jurisdiction over all matters concerning zoning in the District of Columbia.¹¹ In addition to being responsible for the zoning regulations (Title 11 of the D.C. Municipal Regulations), the Commission reviews all cases relating to the zoning map and text. These include planned unit developments (PUDs) and campus plans for colleges and universities. The Zoning Commission is also responsible for implementing the land use aspects of the Comprehensive Plan—a plan which is proposed by the Mayor and adopted by the Council. The Commission’s plenary authority includes the right to review, sua sponte, any decision of the Board of Zoning Adjustment.¹²

The Committee recognizes that while Ms. John lacks experience in zoning or planning related issues, she has a strong background in administrative proceedings and understanding statutory and regulatory interpretation that will allow her to contribute significantly to the BZA. Further, the Committee finds Ms. John sincere in her willingness to become versed in zoning matters and her commitment to serving the District. Therefore, the Committee recommends the confirmation of Ms. Lorna John as a member of the Board of Zoning Adjustment for a term to expire on September 30, 2018.

A. No.

15. Given your experience since first appointed, how do you plan to help the Board fulfill its role and mission during your time on the Board over the next three years?

In the past seven months, I have had the privilege of serving on the BZA where I had the opportunity to conduct hearings on applications for variances and special exceptions, and appeals from administrative decisions. These zoning decisions affect how we live and work in the District of Columbia. A docket of 5-15 hearings and appeals each week requires substantial preparation to decide the issues presented in a fair and impartial manner. I have done so willingly, and I feel privileged to be able to serve my community in this way.

If I am confirmed, I commit to devoting the necessary time and attention to review the zoning regulations and apply the regulations to the facts presented in each case in a fair and impartial manner. I will also seek the advice of the Office of the Attorney General, and consult with the technical experts who serve on, or support, the Board as necessary.

16. Please discuss any past and present experiences not already mentioned that you believe are relevant to support your appointment as a member of the BZA.

Because the BZA is a quasi-judicial body, I have been able to my apply litigation skills, knowledge of administrative proceedings, and understanding of statutory and regulatory interpretation to resolve zoning matters that have come before the Board. I have worked collaboratively with other BZA Commissioners and the BZA staff and will continue to do so, if confirmed.

Committee of the Whole
Council of the District of Columbia
John A. Wilson Building
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20004

Good morning Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee. I am Lorna John, and I would like to thank you for providing this opportunity to appear before you today. I would also like to express my gratitude to Mayor Bowser for re-nominating me to the Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA).

I have lived in the District of Columbia for almost 30 years. I currently live in Ward 6, but I have also lived in Wards 2 and 4. I obtained my undergraduate degree from the University of the West Indies, my graduate degree from Howard University, and a law degree from Georgetown University. After graduating from law school, I was a partner in a small general practice law firm in the District of Columbia. Later, I worked as a Hearing Examiner and Staff Attorney at the former Office of Human Rights and Minority Business. In 1990, I was hired as a Staff Attorney and then as Senior Attorney at the Federal Aviation Administration. I served in that capacity until I retired in late 2013. I currently serve as General Counsel for The High Tea Society, a non-profit mentoring organization for young girls in the District of Columbia. I am the President and Founder of the Luna Brown Street Foundation, a non-profit organization that provides scholarships and assistance to underserved students, here and in the Caribbean.

In February of this year, I was confirmed by this Council to serve on the BZA. The BZA's purpose is to provide relief to interested parties from the strict application of the zoning regulations and maps, by hearing requests for variances, special exceptions and appeals from administrative orders. In this way, the BZA plays a crucial role in maintaining the integrity of the District's zoning regulations and maps. My service on the BZA has been very rewarding. In the past seven months, I have developed a keen understanding of the zoning regulations and applied my legal training and experience in resolving zoning issues that come before the BZA. This means, identifying relevant facts and applying the regulations to those facts, while recognizing the legitimate concerns of the litigants and community members who appear before the BZA. And, as a long-time resident in the District of Columbia, I fully appreciate the importance of the District's zoning laws and regulations in sustaining viable residential and commercial neighborhoods.

Therefore, if I am confirmed, I commit to working with my colleagues to further the Board's purpose. I also commit to devoting the time and attention necessary to prepare for and decide matters that come before the Board and to do so fairly, as the regulations allow.

I appreciate this opportunity to share a summary of my education, training and skills, and my views about serving on the BZA, and I thank you for your consideration of my appointment. I am available to answer any questions.
