I. BACKGROUND AND NEED

On September 24, 2018, Proposed Resolution 22-1016, the “Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Board of Directors Joslyn Williams Confirmation Resolution of 2018” was introduced by Chairman Phil Mendelson at the request of the Mayor. PR 22-1016 would confirm the Mayor’s nomination of Mr. Joslyn Williams for reappointment to the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Board of Directors for a six-year term expiring January 5, 2025. Mr. Williams is a resident of Ward 6.

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority (“MWAA”) was created in 1987 to assume control of Washington Dulles International Airport and Washington National Airport (later renamed Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport). The airports were formerly run by the U.S. Department of Transportation and the Federal Aviation Administration. MWAA is an independent body created through an interstate compact between the Commonwealth of Virginia and the District of Columbia.

In addition to the two airports, MWAA also operates, maintains, and controls the Dulles Toll Road and the Dulles Access Road. In 2008, Virginia officially transferred control of the Toll Road to MWAA in order for MWAA to construct an extension of WMATA's rail line, known as the Silver Line, connecting the region to Tysons Corner and Dulles Airport. The first phase of the Silver Line opened in July of 2014, with the second phase currently under construction and expected to open in 2020.

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Board of Directors (the "Board") governs the activities of MWAA. It is composed of 17 members: seven members appointed by the Governor of Virginia, four members appointed by the Mayor of the District of Columbia, three members appointed by the Governor of Maryland, and three members appointed by the President of the United States with the advice and consent of the Senate. Board terms are for six years and members may not hold over and may not serve after the expiration of a term unless and until they are reappointed, and each member is limited to a maximum of two terms. All members must reside within the Washington Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area except for the President's appointments, each of whom must be a registered voter of a state other than Virginia, Maryland, or the District.¹ These provisions are the result of changes required by Congress 2012 that increased the number and allocation of seats, prohibited the holding over of a seat, and limited reappointment.²

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Board of Directors (the Board) governs the activities of MWAA. It is currently composed of 17 members, including seven members appointed by the Governor of Virginia, four members appointed by Mayor of the District of Columbia, three members appointed by the Governor of Maryland, and three members appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate. Board terms are for 6 years and members may not serve after the expiration of their term and are not eligible for reappointment. All members must reside within the Washington area, except that the President's appointments must not be registered to vote in Virginia, Maryland, or the District.³ These provisions are the result of recently enacted changes to the MWAA interstate compact passed by the Federal Government,⁴ the Commonwealth of Virginia,⁵ and the District⁶ which increased the number and allocation of seats and the provision prohibiting reappointment. It is for this reason that the appointment of a new Board member from the District is necessary.

Mr. Joslyn Williams was nominated by Mayor Bowser on September 24, 2018 for reappointment to the Board. Mr. Williams was first appointed to the board in 2012.

Mr. Williams was the former President of the Metropolitan Washington Council, AFL-CIO, which includes the District, and Montgomery, Prince George's, Charles, Calvert, and St. Mary's Counties in Maryland. Mr. Williams received his B.A. from Howard University. He is a

Mr. Williams has been a longtime advocate for organized labor. He began his career working at the Library of Congress, where he served first as shop steward for Local 1826 of the American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE) union, and then Executive Director of Council 26, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME). In 1978, he was appointed Executive Assistant to the President of the Metropolitan Washington Council, AFL-CIO (“Council”), and then as President in 1982. Mr. Williams was the first African-American president of the Council.

In his work at the Council, Mr. Williams represented the interests of 175 affiliated local unions representing public sector employees as well as members in a range of industries including, construction, hospitality, and public utilities. As President, Mr. Williams oversaw the formation of the Council's charitable organization known as the Community Services Agency in 1991, currently serving as president of its Board of Trustees.

Mr. Williams has served on several local Boards and Commissions including the Convention Center Authority, the Anacostia Waterfront Corporation, the Rivlin Commission, the Cable TV Commission, the 1998 Tax Revision Commission, the Workforce Investment Council, the Project Labor Agreement Task Force for Nationals stadium, and the DC Labor-Management Partnership Council.

At the November 14, 2018 roundtable on his nomination, he testified regarding the importance of our airports to the vitality of the region, and the need to guarantee that development and transportation infrastructure in the Dulles corridor serves the needs of the region. In particular, Mr. Williams pointed to the need to provide better training and opportunities for District residents to compete with jobs created by the Authority, particularly with the construction of the Dulles Metrorail Expansion and the Reagan National Airport expansion. While Mr. Williams has a strong commitment to regional cooperation, he recognizes that his role on the Board would be to represent the interests of the District of Columbia. For these reasons, as well as his experience, the Committee recommends his appointment.
