Intralot, Inc. is a global company that has extensive expertise in the creation, implementation and maintenance of lottery systems, and sports wagering services through a digital/mobile platform. They have award winning technology, a talented marketing team and success in building partnerships, both nationally and globally.

A June 7, 2019 Dun and Bradstreet report on Intralot presents that company is financially stable to provide the proposed contract services. Further, the District Treasurer has reviewed the financials of Intralot, Inc. and determined that the company is financially stable to perform the proposed contract services. Intralot has satisfactory prior performance on its contract with the District government and with its current clients. Intralot is in full compliance with the District tax requirements.

- (4A) A summary of the subcontracting plan required under D.C. Code § 2-218.01 et seq., including a certification by the District that the subcontracting plan meets the minimum requirements and the dollar volume of the portion of the contract to be subcontracted, in both total dollars and as a percentage of the total contract amount:

The Contractor has provided a subcontracting plan that exceeds the 35% requirement per D.C. Code §2-218.01. A copy of the subcontracting plan is included in this package.

- (5) Performance standards and expected outcomes of the proposed contract:

The contract shall be performed as defined in Section C of the contract.

- (5A) The amount and date of any expenditure of funds by the District pursuant to the contract before its submission to the Council for approval:

There have been no expenditures to date.

- (6) A certification that the proposed contract is within the appropriated budget authority for the agency for the fiscal year and is consistent with the financial plan and budget adopted in accordance with D.C. Official Code §§ 47-392.01 and 47-392.02:

The funding certification is included in this Council package.

- (7) A certification that the proposed contract is legally sufficient, including whether the proposed contractor has any currently pending legal claims against the District:

Legal Sufficiency is provided in this Council package.

- (8) A certification that the Citywide Clean Hands Database indicates that the proposed contractor is current with its District taxes. If the Citywide Clean Hands Database indicates that the proposed contractor is not current with its District taxes, (1) a certification that the contractor has worked out and is current with a payment schedule approved by the District or (2) a certification that the contractor will be current with its District taxes after the District recovers any outstanding amount.

The Clean Hands compliance document is included in this Council package.

- (8A) A certification that the proposed contract that it is current with its federal taxes, or has worked out and is current with a payment schedule approved by the federal government:

The Bidder Offeror Certification is included in the Council package.

- (9) The status of the proposed contractor as a certified local, small, or disadvantaged business enterprise, as defined in the Small, Local, and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Development and Assistance Act of 2005, effective October 20, 2005 (D.C. Law 16-33; D.C. Official Code § 2-218.01 et seq.):

Intralot is not a Certified Business Enterprise (CBE).
