I. BACKGROUND AND NEED

Proposed Resolution 21-464, the “Citizens Review Panel on Child Abuse and Neglect Emily Smith Goering Appointment Resolution of 2016,” was introduced by Chairman Mendelson on December 10, 2015 and referred to the Committee of the Whole. The purpose of PR 21-464 is to confirm the Council’s nomination of Emily Smith Goering for appointment as a member and vice-chairperson of the Citizens Review Panel on Child Abuse and Neglect as a Council appointee for a three-year term.

The Citizens Review Panel on Child Abuse and Neglect (“Panel”) was established by the Child in Need of Protection Amendment Act of 2004 “to serve as an external, independent oversight body for the District’s child welfare system, evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the District government agencies involved in child protection as well as neighborhood-based services provided by vendors.”¹ In addition to Council appointees, members of the Panel include mayoral appointees.² The Panel’s chairperson is to be appointed by the Mayor, and the vice-chairperson appointed by the Council.³

Ms. Smith Goering is currently a Ward 7 resident and is currently a doctoral student at the University of Maryland School of Social Work. She is a graduate of the University of Texas School of Social Work, where she earned a Master of Social Work. Ms. Smith Goering also holds a Bachelor of Science in Social Work from the Bethel College. Ms. Smith Goering has over a decade of experience in the field of social work. In addition, she has worked in an informal capacity with the Panel during the past year. This experience should equip her to contribute successfully to the Panel’s work going forward.

The Committee of the Whole recommends her appointment.
